GINUM

Identity Manual | January 2025

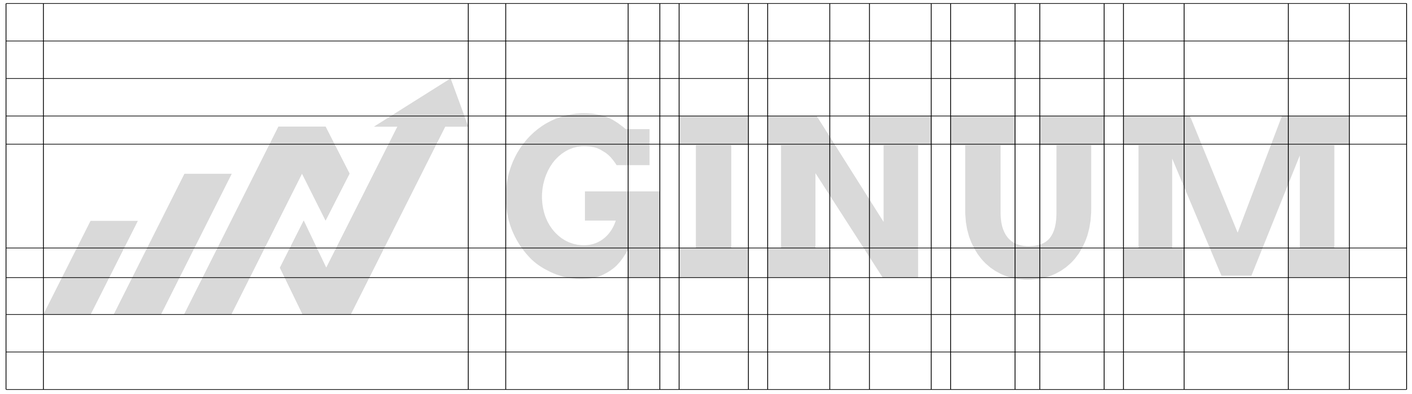

Welcome

These guidelines will instruct you on how to use our brand identity effectively, to make all brand communications look and sound their best.

This document will take you through strategy, tone of voice, logo, color, typography, product which come together to make the GINUM brand.

Logo

Our logo sits at the core of our brand. It's bold and unique capturing the essence of the GINUM brand and should be used on all of our communications. The following guidance will instruct you on how to most effectively use our logo.

Logo Color

Our logo may be used in Dark blue, Light Blue, Matte black and white. Use the elements in your piece of communication to determine the color of your logo for maximum contrast and clarity. If your background dark, you should be using a white logo.

Logo Clear Space

Minimum Size
For clarity across digital and print applications our logo shouldnever be reproduced at any sizebelow the adjacent guidance.

Clear Space
To look its best, our logo needs space to stand out. We have defined parameters to make sure no other elements encroach on this clear space.

Color

Color is an essential component of our brand and is what makes a communication immediately recognizable as GINUM brand

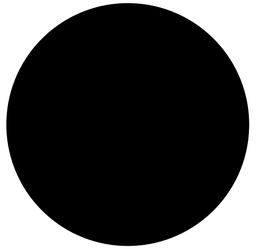

Our palette is serious with a bold brightness in the form of our vibrant lead color. Our main set of colors are a handful of blue, light blue
These colors are used on all pieces of GINUM communication in one form or another.

Type

We have one typeface we use for all of our headlines: Arvo. Featuring many fine details, moderate contrast and slightly unusual anatomy, the typeface can be a loud and proud hero or a humble supporting actor for all sorts of designs. GINUM communication in one form or another.

ABCDEFGHIJKLMNOQRSTUVWXYZ
abcdefghijkmnopqrstuvwxyz

Secondary Type

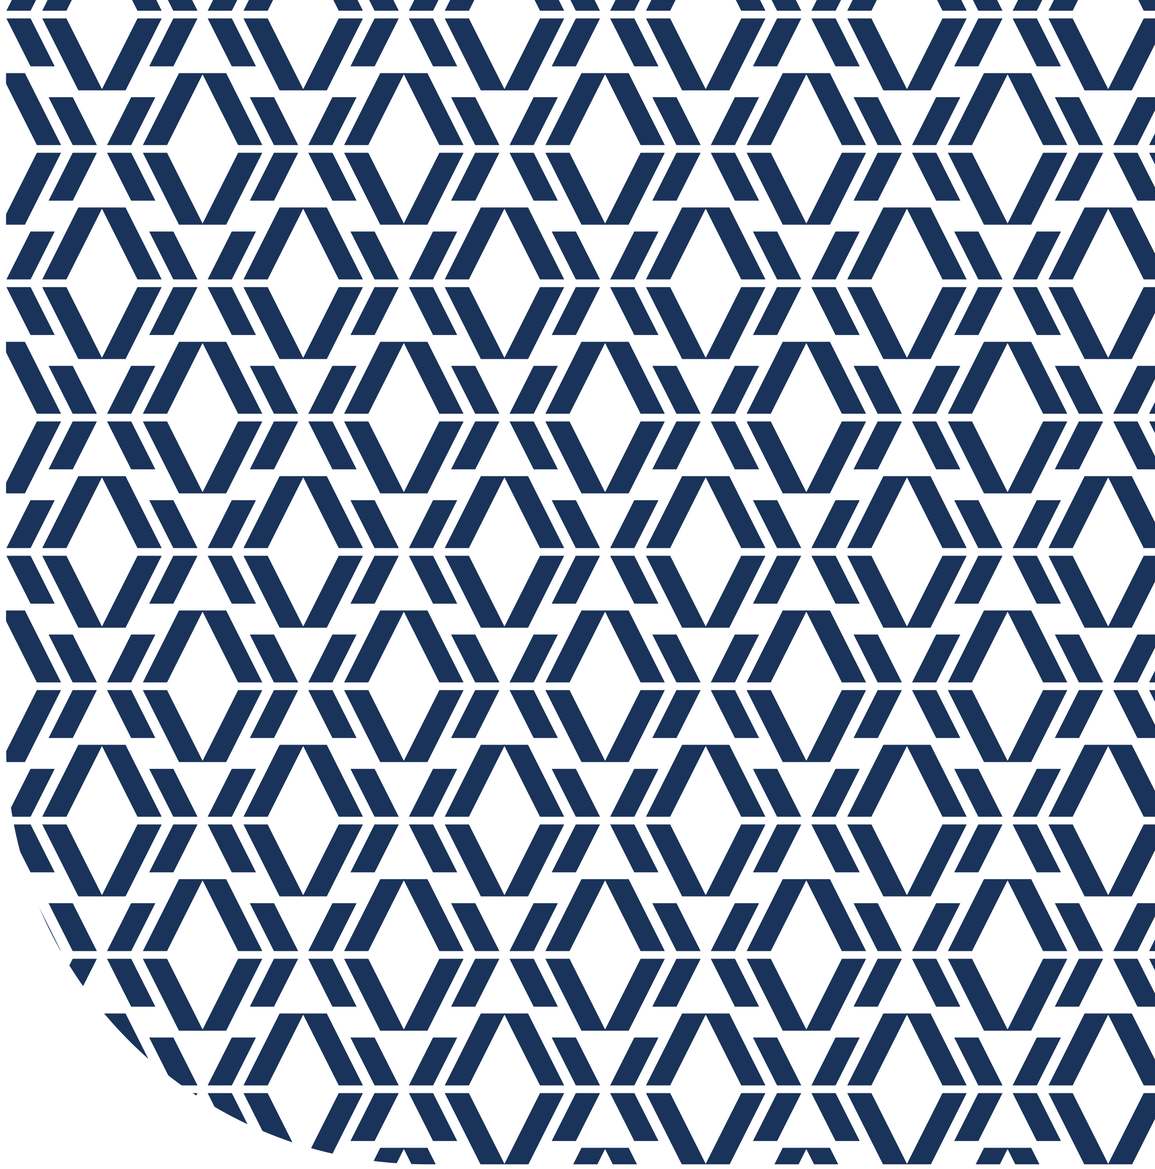

Secondary typeface is helvetica. It is used across all body copy when we need to be a bit more clear and digestible versus expressive. We use helvetica Regular for the most part, but will occasionally highlight key words or phrases in helvetica bold.

Pattern

Another component of the visual identity is the pattern. This has been developed deriving from the graphic forms found within the logomark. The modular repeating pattern portrays the natural flow of GINUM.
The pattern creates an instantly recognisable identity that is unique to the brand.
